From the Pastor

Heinrich von Hess , Boniface Cutting Down Tree of Thor, 1834

Tertullian wrote:

You are the light of the world, a tree ever green, if you have renounced the heathen temple.

The evergreen tree retains green foliage through the year.

Pope Gregory II sent Boniface as missionary to Germany in 716AD.

German Chieftan Gundar was offering Prince Asulf a bloody sacrifice to Thor—supposedly living in a huge oak tree (sacrifice in foreground above).

Boniface took an ax to the tree and a “bloody oak” fell to the ground—and standing next to oak was an evergreen tree.

Boniface pointed to the Evergreen Tree and said -

*“This is the word and this is the counsel.
Not a drop of blood shall fall tonight, for this is the birth-night of Saint Christ, Son of the All-Father and Savior of the world.*

This little tree, a young child of the forest, shall be a home tree tonight. It is the wood of peace, for your houses are built of fir. It is the sign of endless life, for its branches are ever green.

See how it points toward heaven!

*Let this be called the tree of the Christ Child; gather about it, not in the wild woods but in your homes; there it will shelter no deeds of blood, but loving gifts
and lights of kindness."*

In 1520, German Reformer Martin Luther was walking home on Christmas Eve and noticed innumerable stars twinkling in the night sky.

Luther returned home and set up an evergreen tree and placed candles on its branches.

The evergreen and lights were used as visual lessons— teaching his beloved children— the story of Jesus Christ, the Light of the World, and whose birth had illuminated the night sky in Bethlehem.

Luther then set up nativity scene under the tree, so lights from candles would glow as stars above the place of Christ's birth.

In 1850 (inaugural year of Third Baptist) Richard Storrs Willis published "It Came Upon a Midnight Clear."

Imagine Third's founding members gathered Christmas Eve on Market Street, singing final stanza from the original lyrics:

*For lo! The days are hastening on,
By prophet bards foretold.
When, with ever-circling years,
Shall come the Age of Gold;
When peace shall over all the earth,
In ancient splendors fling,
And all the world gives back the son,
Which now the angels sing.*

And after Joseph Walker's benediction, walking down two flights of stairs, Third's congregation walked out into cold St. Louis night: "Merry Christmas Brother Joseph" "Merry Christmas Sister Mary"— final blessings and hugs on a blessed Christmas Eve.

How could Third's 1850 congregation have imagined, as the days are hastening on toward conclusion of 2025—a few blocks north— Third Baptist is alive at Grand and Washington, working as unto the Lord, until the Age of Gold arrives.

Beloved, Merry Christmas!
Tommy

Mission Focus December: CAC Adopt-a-Child Donations

CAC Adopt-A-Child for Christmas update:

Your Missions Team and volunteers are busy with our holiday project of providing Christmas joy and tangible gifts to many children who are part of the Christian Activity Center (CAC) in East St. Louis. As of this writing we are working on gifts for 23 children, with the possibility of more as the project winds down. The gifts will be brought to the church by the end of November. We are planning to wrap gifts the morning of December 5th between 10:00am and Noon. A blessing of the gifts will be the following Sunday, and on Monday December 8th all the gifts will be transported to CAC.

If you are able to help with wrapping, please RSVP to let Jane Russell or Peggy Pittenger know. (peggypittenger@gmail.com or 314.323.1211)

Christmas World Mission Offering:

This season brings the opportunity to say thank you to our many missionaries around the world. This offering goes to their support and many projects that are in progress. We support missionaries of both the American Baptists and Cooperative Baptists which totals over 86 individuals or couples with families around the world. Please be generous as you consider your gift to keep them on the mission field. Look for a red envelope available in front of the church office or check "Christmas World Offering" on the church envelope or online.

As our 175th year of service to the Lord comes to a close, we think of the great cloud of witnesses who went before us and the generous outpouring of love and support they showed for those who ventured to the mission fields. May we carry that love forward into 2026, and beyond as the Lord is at work around the world.

ON LOVING AND STUDYING SCRIPTURE

You are no more than two verses into the Bible when the word "water" appears. In the act of creation the Spirit of God is moving over the face of the waters.

Then, the remainder of the creation stories has plenty to say about the separation of waters and what is contained in them.

When Noah comes on the scene, water is, of course, the major player. Even our pre-schoolers remember and know that. The same is true with Jonah. No water? No story.

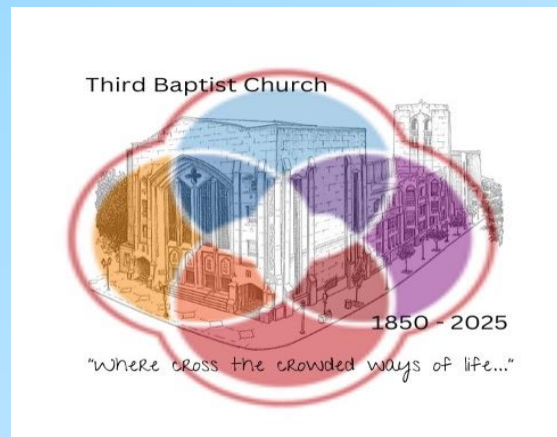

When we get to Jesus, there is his baptism in the River Jordan, his turning water into wine, and Peter's walking on water. Plenty more examples. Water, water everywhere.

It is no wonder that when Wayfarers open the Bible to study, we talk about swimming in the Scriptures. We call on God to buoy us up, to help us out, and to rescue us. It's sink or swim time, and we believe that in the study of his Word God wants to redeem us and teach us.

That's part of what we Wayfarers are about, and we invite you to join us.

Steve and Dawn
